NOTARY PUBLIC IN AND FOR SAID COUNTY, STATE OF TEXAS, ON THIS DAY PERSONALLY APPEARED I (

___, WHO AFTER BEING BY ME DULY SWORN, ON OATH DEPOSES AND SAYS:

On the afternoon of October 24, 1992, I, ~~Jones~~, witnessed a conversation between a boy who goes by the name of [redacted] (and also the name of Bubby Hicks) and two other men. This conversation occured in Dallas, Texas, specifically on the west end of the north concrete pergola in Dealey Plaza. This conversation was brief, but consisted of [redacted] repeatedly badmouthing Mr. Harrison E. Livingstone because of his so called "improper conduct" at the A.S.K. conference earlier that morning. [redacted] basically stated that he favored Robert Groden over Mr. Livingstone as well. The two other men, who were attending the conference basically agreed with most of the comments that [redacted] would make. After [redacted] had thoroughly badmouthed Mr. Livingstone's character and credibility, he then displayed a photocopy of two sets of two mugshots, each showing a front and side profile of a man. [redacted] then said, "This is Harry Livingstone in his early days," and then claimed that Mr. Livingstone had been in prison for child-molestation. [redacted] then claimed that [redacted] had given him the photocopy of the mugshots. At that point, I walked away.
